Tempus Resorts International To Open Call Center in Lakeland

CELEBRATION, FLORIDA – February 5, 2008: Tempus Resorts International, a leading vacation ownership development and management company based in Orlando, Florida, has begun construction of a new state-of-the art call center in Lakeland, Florida with plans to open in late March 2008. The new call center, located in the Lakeside Village Mall, will support Tempus Resorts' outbound direct marketing operations with approximately 75 additional vacation advisor positions, engaging with families around the world to book vacation packages to Tempus Resorts properties.

"This expansion of our contact center marketing operation is exciting news for us, as demand for our vacation products continues to increase," said Roger Farwell, President and CEO of Tempus Resorts International. "Lakeland provides an excellent location for this expansion initiative, and we are pleased to be joining a great community."

The call center has been designed with spacious work stations, flat screen display monitors and the latest in telecommunications software technology. A training and recruiting team will be maintained on-site once the new call center is opened.
